KPMG Oy Ab, Authorised Public Accountants, was re-elected as the company's auditor for the term ending at the close of the next Annual General Meeting. The fees for the auditor are paid according to invoice.

Shareholders' Nomination Committee

Based on the proposal by the company's largest shareholder, Solidium Oy, wholly-owned by the Finnish State, to form a nomination committee, the Annual General Meeting resolved to form a nomination committee to prepare proposals on the composition and remuneration of the Board of Directors to the next Annual General Meeting.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors, elected as an expert member, and representatives of the three largest shareholders are elected to form the nomination committee. The right to nominate shareholder representatives lies with those three shareholders whose share of the voting power of all the shares of the company is the largest on November 1, preceding the Annual General Meeting. Should a shareholder not wish to use the nomination right, the right to nominate is transferred to the next largest shareholder.

The largest shareholders are determined based on their registered shareholdings in the Finnish book-entry system. However, holdings by a shareholder, who under the Finnish Securities Markets Act has the obligation to disclose changes in shareholdings (flagging obligation), e.g. divided into a number of funds, may be combined provided that the owner presents a written request to that effect to the Board of Directors of the company no later than on October 29, 2010.

The nomination committee is convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the committee shall elect a chairman from among its members. The Shareholders' Nomination Committee shall submit its proposals to the Board latest on February 1, preceding the Annual General Meeting.
